THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW

The town of Lecco offers the following locations for the celebration of civil weddings:

- Sala Brasilia di Villa Gomes
- Sala Conferenze di Palazzo delle Paure
- Sala delle Grisaglie di Villa Manzoni
- Sala del Consiglio comunale di Palazzo Bovara

It is possible to set up the rooms with floral decorations and insert moments of conviviality (reading songs or poems, presence of musicians, photographers..) to be communicated in advance to the Registry Office. Catering is not provided in any room.

SALA DEL CONSIGLIO COMUNALE (PALAZZO BOVARA)

Nineteenth-century building, designed by the architect Giuseppe Bovara, born as a city hospital, then became the seat of the courthouse and the civic museums of Lecco. Today Palazzo Bovara hosts the municipal offices.

Piazza Diaz, 1

Rate: € 50,00

Maximum capacity: 60 people

You are allowed to park two cars in the courtyard of Palazzo Bovara from Monday to Friday and three cars on other days. It is necessary to give the license plate of the parked car to the registry office. It is possible to park additional cars in the paid parking located near the Palace

SALA BRASILIA (VILLA GOMES)

Residence of the Brazilian composer and musician Antonio Carlo Gomes, it was nicknamed "Villa Brasilia" to remember his native country. Once the large garden was rich in essences and exotic animals, to recreate the tropical landscape so dear and familiar to Gomes.

Via Carlo Gomes, 13

Rate: € 200,00

Maximum capacity: 25 people

Access is allowed to one car (of which it is not necessary to communicate the license plate) inside the park to the entrance of the Villa. It is possible to park additional cars in free parking spaces in near the Villa

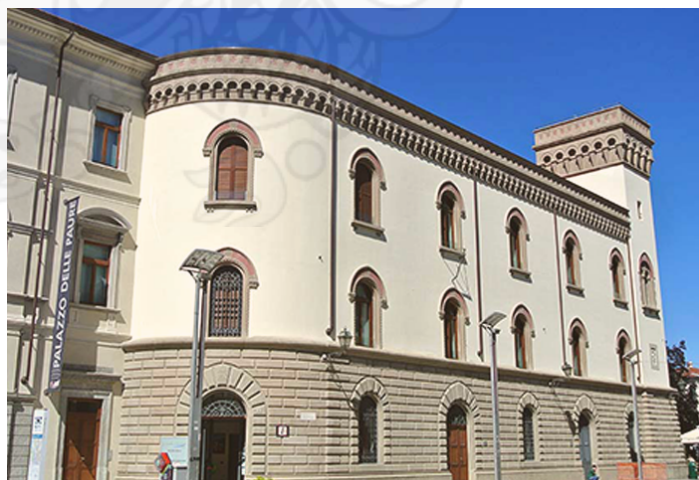

SALA DELLE CONFERENZE (PALAZZO DELLE PAURE)

In neo-medieval eclectic style, it was built on a stretch of the old walls of the fortified village. The appellation, in Lecco dialect "palazz di pagur", was given to him when the building became the seat of the Intendenza di Finanza, where citizens went to pay taxes.

Piazza XX Settembre, 22

Rate for residents: € 500,00

Rate for not resident: € 600,00

Maximum capacity: 80 people

The building is located in the pedestrian area and therefore is allowed access by car in Piazza XX Settembre with prior permission from the local police. It is possible to park additional cars in the nearby paid parking, avoiding access to the restricted traffic area (ZTL)

SALA DELLE GRISAGLIE (VILLA MANZONI)

This building belonged to the Manzoni family from 1615 to 1818, when the poet sold it to the Scola family. Alessandro Manzoni spent his childhood and early adulthood in this villa. From these rooms Manzoni admired the splendid view of Lecco. The mountains and the flowing waters of the river Adda and Lake Como inspired the writer and it became the setting of one of the most famous love stories in the world, the novel "the Betrothed".

Via Beato Guanella, 1

Rate for residents: € 600,00

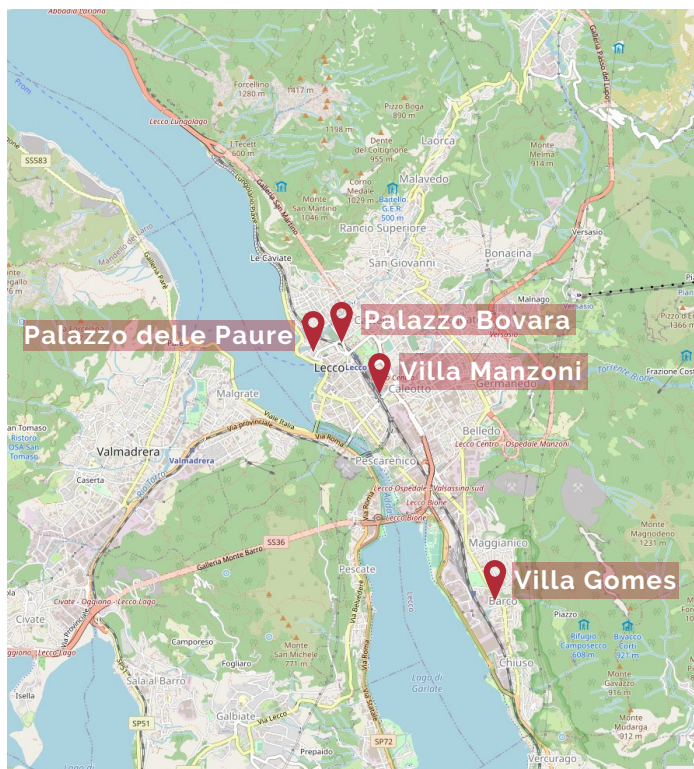

Rate for not resident: € 750,00

Maximum capacity: 20 people

Access by car is not allowed inside the courtyard of the Villa, but you can park in the parking lot next to the Villa or in the Meridiana Shopping Center
